- 7.1.1 The extension of a probationary period will be done based on performance. The immediate supervisor must monthly evaluate the employee's performance, record it, and keep a portfolio of evidence.

- 7.1.2 The performance appraisal of the probationer should be done on an ongoing basis to ensure that shortcomings in work performance are identified, and necessary corrective action taken immediately. However, such an appraisal must be aimed at correcting behaviour in terms of the criterion set.

- 7.1.6 In the case where the probationer does not meet the required performance standard or is alleged to be incompetent, the Supervisor should advise the employee of the aspects in respect of which he/she does not meet the required standards or is alleged to be incompetent. The Supervisor, through the Director of a Department, must give written reason to the employee as to why it is necessary to initiate the procedure in respect of poor performance.

7.1.7 Before terminating an employee's service for poor performance, the employer must convene an inquiry to give the employee the opportunity to make representation in response to the allegations against him/her.

7.1.8 Despite paragraphs 7.1.1, 7.1.3 and 7.1.7, the Municipal Manager or his/her delegate may extend the probationary period by a period not exceeding twelve (12) months, to afford the Supervisor an opportunity to further assess the staff member's performance.

9. PROCEDURE IN DEALING WITH POOR PERFORMANCE AND/OR INCAPACITY
